Headline:
Wet and windy, with showers and sunny spells. Coastal gales.

Today:
Another wet and windy day, with frequent heavy showers throughout, and snow over hills, although patchy cloud allows for some sunny spells later in the day. Winds easing slightly from overnight, but conditions remain blustery with coastal gales. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
This evening will see further showers, with a few heavy outbreaks likely. Showers ease overnight and largely clear, although some may persist in the west. Winds continue to weaken. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Sunday:
A largely dry and cloudy start, but sunny spells for some. Widespread rain approaches in the afternoon, and snow over hills, clearing through the evening. Largely dry overnight, remaining windy. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Cloudy with some rain later on Monday. Rain and drizzle Tuesday morning, but some sunshine later. Dry Wednesday, with sunny skies before cloud sets in later.
